

Scottish

Learning Disabilities

Observatory

INTEGRATING EVIDENCE, POLICY AND PRACTICE

16th May 2017

*Strathclyde Suite, Glasgow Royal Concert Hall,
2 Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow, G2 3NY*

PROGRAMME

- 9.30am Registration, posters, exhibition stands and refreshments
- 10.30am Welcome and introduction
Sir Kenneth Calman, Chancellor, University of Glasgow
- 10.40am Voices of experience video
- 10.50am What do we know about the health and healthcare of people with learning disabilities?
Professor Sally-Ann Cooper, Director, Scottish Learning Disabilities Observatory
- 11.20am Mental Health and Learning Disabilities policy
Mrs Maureen Watt, Minister for Mental Health
- 11.35am Seven years on: the experience of the Public Health England Learning Disabilities Observatory
Professor Chris Hatton, Co-director of Improving Health and Lives
- 12.00pm Lunch, posters and networking
- 1.00pm Introduction to afternoon session, chaired by Dr Colin Fischbacher
- 1.10pm Making the difference together: how can public involvement in research drive better health information?
Dr Lamiece Hassan, Public Engagement and Involvement Manager, University of Manchester
- 1.45pm Parallel workshops (delegates choose 2)
- Workshop one: SPIRE - Enabling the use of information to support the learning disabilities and autism agenda*
- Workshop two: Engaging the voice of people with learning disabilities in evidence*
- Workshop three: The keys to life implementation framework: setting the priorities*
- Workshop four: Health in the 2021 Census*
- 3.15pm Chaired panel discussion and questions
- 3.45pm Conference ends

Please note: if you would like to tweet about the event, please use #sldo2017