

Application for the Research Voices Project

You can fill out this form on your own or with help from someone else

If you want help from us to fill out the form, please call 0141 211 3889

How did you find out about the Research Voices Project?

Somebody you know or work with told you about the project

You saw the project on a website or social media like Facebook or Twitter

You read about the project in our newsletter

You heard about the project at a presentation

What is your first and last name?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing the person's first and last name.

What is your home address?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing the person's home address.

What is your phone number?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing the person's phone number.

What is your email address (if you have one)?

Blank response area for email address.

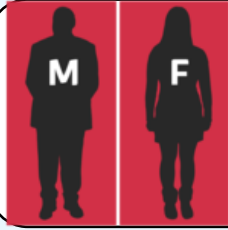

What is the best way to get in contact with you?
Phone, email or letter?

Blank response area for preferred contact method.

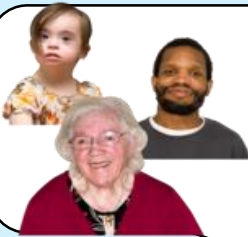

Do you have learning disabilities?

Blank response area for learning disabilities.

Are you a man or a woman?

Empty response box for gender question.

What age are you?

Empty response box for age question.

Do you have a health condition? You do not need to have health condition to be involved in the project, but we would like to make people with health conditions a priority.

Empty response box for health condition question.

Please read our easy read project information sheet and tell us why you are interested in taking part in the Research Voices Project

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing a response to the question above.

Are you interested in health? Why?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing a response to the question above.

What are you really good at?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an answer to the question above.

If we invite you to come to an interview, what would you need to have a good experience?

For example, do you need an interpreter?

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an answer to the question above.

What will happen next?

We will read this application to see if you are right for the project

We will contact you by phone, email or letter to tell you if you can come to an interview

Even if you do not come to interview, we will ask if you want to stay involved in other ways

If you are the right person for the project, we will meet you for an interview to get to know you better

How we will use your information

There are new rules about how organisations keep people's personal information.

The new rules are called the General Data Protection Regulations or GDPR

A yellow rectangular form with three input fields. The first field is labeled 'Name', the second 'Address', and the third 'Phone Number'. Each field has a horizontal line below it for text entry.

Your personal information includes your name, address and phone number

You have shared your personal information on this application

We are asking for this information so that we can understand if you are able to be part of our citizen's jury

We will also use this information to write a report about the citizen's jury, but we will not use your name in this report.

We will keep the information in a locked folder in the computer. Only people who work on the project will be able to see it

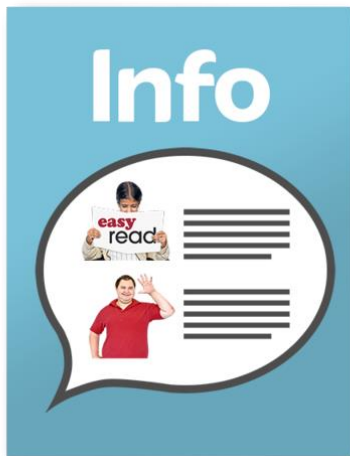

We will not share your personal information with anyone

How we will use your information

We will keep this information throughout the project, and then get rid of it after the project is complete in July 2020

If you want, you can ask us to get rid of the information earlier

You can read more about GDPR and your rights on our Easyread GDPR leaflet

It is important that you understand your rights before you agree to share your information

If you have any questions, you can speak to Rhiann

Email:
Rhiann.mclean@Glasgow.ac.uk
Phone number: 0141 211 3889

Please tick this box if you are fine with us using your information in this way